

Table 2. The tallest measured tree for each Australian State. Where more than one species is listed for a State, only the tallest tree of each species is listed.

State	Tallest tree/species
Tasmania	99.6 m E. regnans in Arve Valley 90.7 m E. globulus near Lonnavele 89 m E. viminalis near Fingal 87.9 m E. delegatensis near Wayatinah 86 m E. obliqua in Wild Rivers Nat. Park
Victoria	91.6 m E. regnans in Kinglake Nat. Park (prior to 2009 fires) 85 m E. nitens in Yarra Ranges Nat. Park (prior to 2009 fires)
Western Australia	80.5 m E. diversicolor near Manjimup 52 m Corymbia calophylla in Warren Nat. Park
New South Wales	79.2 m for E. nobilis in Styx River State Forest, near Armidale 71 m for E. deanei near Woodford, Blue Mountains Unconfirmed - 77 m? for E. grandis near Bulahdelah Unconfirmed - 68 m? for Corymbia maculata in Murramarang Nat. Park
Queensland	Few documented tall tree records... Contenders include: 55 m E. grandis near Maleny Unconfirmed - 60 m Agathis microstachya near Kuranda Unconfirmed - 59 m Eucalyptus saligna near Ravensbourne
South Australia	Exotic - 46 m Pinus radiata near Aldgate, Mt Lofty Ranges Indigenous - 43.5 m E. camaldulensis in Wilpena Creek, Flinders Ranges
Northern Territory	Very few documented records... Exotic - 32 m Parkia javanica in Darwin Indigenous - 26 m Syzygium armstrongii in Darwin